

Common English Words Used in Daily Life

Use: To take advantage of something or an object for a specific purpose.

- Can I use your phone to call my mom because my phone is running out of charge?

See: Knowing the existence of something with the help of the eye, looking.

- I saw you yesterday, you were tired.

Like: To enjoy something, to like it.

- I like you since the first time I saw you.

First: be ahead of time, place and order, be first.

- I was the first student of our school this year, everyone is proud of me.

Any: This word is used when talking about anything.

- You don't know how to behave in any event.

Work: To produce anything, profession, to work regularly, to serve.

- Since I am sick, I will not be able to go to work today because I have a report.

Now: The moment we live, the moment we are in.

- To be able to apply them in your life, now you have to listen carefully to everything I will tell you.