

Idioms about FISH

Big Fish: This statement is used to describe that the gain or person to be gained is valuable.

- If John accepts what he will come up with next year, he will be big fish.

A Fish Story: Used for people who fail, incompetent, thoughtless and lie in the face of a job, event or situation.

- Elissa told a big fish story. It is not even necessary to listen!

The Cat Would Eat Fish But Would Not Wet Her Feet: Refers to stress, stress, and willingness to take risks to get what you want.

- It will be a very difficult period for you, but the cat would eat fish but would not wet her feet.

Fish Out of Water: This phrase is used for people who suddenly enter an unknown environment.

- My friend hasn't left home for a very long time. The moment he came near us, he returned to the fish out of water.

Fish Memory: It is a phrase that means having a very weak memory and forgetting it quickly.

- My classmate forgot everything very quickly, it was a child with a fish memory.