

Daily Use English Words

About: means about, almost, about. (We are talking about the exam)

All: All, all, all, everything (Is it all mine?)

An: One, (any) one (You are eating an apple.)

And: A conjunction with meaning (Tomas and Samuel are playing.)

Be: To be, to exist, to be (To be continued.)

Because: Explain something (He is very successful because he works continuously.)

By: A binding attachment, to (Billy always goes to school by bus.)

Call: Call by mobile phone (verb) (Melissa call me!)

Come: Coming, approaching (Are you come cinema?)

Did: Second form of the verb do (Did you study French for exam?)

For: Because, according to, purpose, direction, counter, etc. (preposition)

Go: move

Had: Past tense of the verb “have”

Has: To have

Have: Owning, obtaining, knowing, accepting

