

Food Names

Rice: Rice meal, which is generally consumed in South Asian regions, has an important place in our culture.

Spaghetti: Spaghetti, which is formed in the Italian culture and spreads to the world, is consumed everywhere today, including the Middle East.

Pizza: It is really hard to prepare food such as pizza and cook it at home in daily life. Therefore, I prefer to go to the restaurant when my dear draws such foods.

Eggs: Especially people who do sports should eat eggs at breakfast in the morning in order to meet their daily protein needs and to be healthy.

Cheese: I always loved drinking wine, moreover, eating cheese alongside the wine makes the evening extremely enjoyable.

Apple juice: If you want to eat really healthy and meet your sweet needs naturally, you should prefer organic foods such as apple juice.

Milk: Recently, almond milk is one of the most preferred liquid foods especially by vegans.

Cookies: Being still at home for a long time made me learn how to make different foods such as cookies in the kitchen.
