

Names of Extinct Animals

Aurochs: Aurochs is the ancestor of domestic cattle living in Asia, Europe and North Africa.

Caspian Tiger: The Caspian tiger, Turkey, Iran and Iraq as well as it is known that in most of Central Asia and Northwest also found in China.

Carolina Parakeet: Carolina Parakeet is an indigenous animal living in the east of the United States.

Cuban Macaw: As the name suggests, this animal, which became extinct in 1985, lived in Cuba.

Dodo: Dodo may be one of the most famous extinct animals. It is a species of bird that evolves without natural predators.

Woolly Mammoth: It was heavily found on the Wrangel Island of the Arctic Ocean. Its extinction was sold out 4,000 years ago.